Hope you called in sick to spend every daylight hour hitting the very best restaurants, bars, patios, and more that the city has to offer. Get the itinerary below, and join in the fun.

7 am Coffee

Thinking Cup (Downtown Crossing) 165 Tremont Street
Hit TC for a piping hot mug of Stumptown java. Line stretched out the door? Roll around the corner and grab a cup instead from Boston Common Coffee on Washington Street.

9 am Breakfast

The Friendly Toast (Kendall) 1 Hampshire Street
Snag a couple of slices of Drunkard's French Toast. One of your buddies give up Grand Marnier for the summer? Then pop over to nearby Area Four.

11 am Shopping

Bodega (Back Bay) 6 Clearway Street
Hit up the sneaker slingers to see which new kicks you should totally be wearing. Can't figure out how to get in? Slink over to the reflecting pool at the Christian Science Center and hang your head in shame.

1 pm Lunch

Charlie's Kitchen (Harvard) 10 Eliot Street
Since you just walked over the bridge from Back Bay, you earned their double-lobster-roll-for-$12 special, and we'll be treating you to lunch if you get there early. While supplies last, first come first serve. Too packed? Cruise down the street to the Sinclair.

Post-lunch @ The Esplanade (Beacon Hill)

Hop the Red Line to MGH and stroll over to Community Boating for a sail on the Charles. If you're afraid of the water, enjoy a post-lunch snooze on the Esplanade's grassy knolls.

4:30 pm Happy Hour

The Barking Crab (Fort Point) 88 Sleeper Street
Order some clams and a bucket of beers and enjoy the outdoors. If you can't get in, fear not! Not the outdoor type? Then the Harpoon Brewery's beer hall is just down Northern Avenue.

7:08 pm Dinner

Stoddard's (Downtown Crossing) 48 Temple Place
Be there for the first pitch of the Sox game in Detroit by rolling up Summer Street. No seats? Play some bubble hockey and eat gloriously at JM Curley.

8:25 pm Sunset Drinks

The Rattlesnake (Back Bay) 384 Boylston Street
End the day throwing back a waiver-required ghost chili margarita under the stars on the roofdeck. Too crowded? Catch the late innings overlooking Fenway atop the Baseball Tavern instead. Or, if you prefer to be on the water, our Readers' Choice is The Landing.
